

THE SCOUTSMAN

Monday 31st July

DAILY STATION NEWS LETTER

Lochearnhead 2017

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY Be strong enough to stand alone, be smart enough to know when you need help and most of all, be brave enough to ask for it

While the groups are away.....

work still has to go on at the station. Tuck shop crew feed the 5000 (or Jack as we know him) and Wendy enjoys her new role as slave driver.. er I mean kitchen supervisor

NEW STAFF AT THE STATION

Yesterday morning the admin staff welcomed a new member into the office though Robin was unable to hold the post and fairly quickly flew off without leaving any presents. We also welcomed two new gardeners helping keep the foliage down. Nice to see them working so well together

Steve Austin (Six million Dollar Man) Revisited

Lochearnhead Leaders took on the challenge of remaking the famous 70's T.V Series. However our Budget doesn't stretch to $6,000,000. Not even to 6,000,000 pence. So here is the story of the 12 1/2p cup. Yes we have the technology - just not the budget

What happens to a D C After he steps down?

Two ex DC's have finally found their true vocations in life. Pass H the tea towel

Three Men

Maggie

A Boat

and a dog

Sunday Activities

3 Day Hike

Mountain Biking

White Water Rafting

Sailing

AND FINALLY Birthday greetings going out today to TRISTAN RODWAY in Patrol C which means he will be spending his day sailing on Loch Earn. Enjoy it Tristan!