"MR. SPUD" COOKING COMPETITION

Thursday, 12th October - scouting national "cook-in" day in front of the Royal Exchange. The Potato Marketing Board have organised a national cooking competition for 4 Scout patrols and 4 Cub sixes, all cooking to be done in the open over charcoal fires,
etc. in front of the Royal Exchange building in London with, we are so informed, grass laid down and tents put up - the mind boggles! We have a vested interest here - Tiger patrol of 5th Letchworth successfully answered.

JIM NORTHOVER MEMORIAL SHIELD Top Five out of 28 Patrols, up to October 1978:

First:	Buffalo 1/3rd L - 475 pts.	Third:	Eagle 1/3rd L - 219 pts.
Second:	Owl 1/3rd L - 226 pts.	Fourth:	Hawk 5th L - 193½ pts.
Fifth:	Lion 8th L Spartans - 143 pts.

the questionnaire - incidentally, many thanks to our splendid local library, reference section and staff, plus numerous gardening magazines. Tigers were subsequently chosen on the strength of their menu (steak kebabs, American bean salad, baked potatoes, followed by barbecued Jamaican oranges and coffee) and will represent the south of England in the cooking finals. Good Luck, we hope they acquit themselves well!
