shown in August Co-Ordinator.

THE SCOUT SHOP will be closed for half-term hols on 30th October and 1st November.

Also, enclosed in the Group envelopes with Co-Ordinator this month are copies of a Uniform order form. Although primarily intended for use by parents of new Cubs, Brownies, etc., there are further copies in the Scout Shop if required. Prices are approximate and are shown on the marked-up Group copy.

A moving message from RUTH BAKER of the SCOUT SHOP: "Diaries and Annuals are now in stock - PLEASE buy them from us and not the local newsagents!"

Scout Fellowship

A VERY BIG THANK YOU goes from our Scout Fellowship to Mr. BRUCE MOSS of the Baldock Society for the simply delightful evening last month when he conducted us round some of Baldock's older and more interesting properties. And a thank you also for entertaining us so hospitably afterwards - including a privileged demonstration of a beautiful, beautiful clock.

OCTOBER meeting - Wednesday, 3rd October, at 5L HQ - JAMBOREE REPORT from our lads;

OCTOBER dancing - Saturday, 13th October, at St. Paul's - L1.50 tickets available from Helen Frankland;

OCTOBER jumbling - Saturday, 27th October, at 1/3rd HQ;

NOVEMBER meeting - Venture Scouts are bravely organising a "mystery tour" for Fellows - approximately 2½ hours' duration.

We welcome to our fold Stephen Newberry, a young 21-year old, who, although not concerned with Scouting previously, will give valuable help with canoeing and hiking activities.

for KEN JOHNSON,
ADC (Fellowship).

MESSAGE TO ALL DISTRICT PATROL LEADERS:

There was a very disappointing turnout for the last District PLs' Council (the 10th anniversary of same too!) although special mention must be made of Ashwell's splendid effort - a 100% attendance. Please remember next month's Council - a special feature will be inaugurated - 7.30 pm at Norton Bury.

JEFF ROBSON,
ADC (Scouts).

GOOD TO SEE the introduction of our new District Badge (now available from the Scout Shop, 12p each). KJ interestingly gave me some earlier gen on this, dated November 1961 - who says they don't get things done - albeit eventually! (Take heart all those of you who have ideas and schemes in the pipeline!)

FOR SALE ADVERT: (a new 'service' for Co-Ordinator perhaps?)
OFFERS for brand new, unworn pair of Scout trousers, 32" waist, 31" leg - please see KJ, 80 Spring Road.
