7 RESUSCI-ANNIE

You are reminded that resusci-annie may be borrowed from Frank Cooke, 27 Bedford Road (672717).

8 LITTER PATROL

A mini litter patrol will soon be seen walking the streets tidying up. The Cavalier Cub Scouts will be working for their Herts County Cub Challenge project and among their tasks will be a campaign against litter.

The boys have designed posters which they are asking shopkeeper, cafes and public places to display.

9 WORLD WILD LIFE FUND

The Cavaliers will also be raising money for the World Wildlife Fund.

10 GOSH

Don't forget to support "the Gang" when they undertake their 42 mile sponsored walk from Letchworth to Great Ormond Street Hospital. About 25 of them hope to raise £1,000 from the Walk - have you sponsored them yet? If not please contact Steve Lusty who will be pleased to take your money.

Congratulations to the Gang for the good publicity they have received in the local press.

11 ADC CUBS

Anne Lilley will be on holiday for a week commencing 11 September.

12 SID BLAXLAND

It was with sorrow that we heard of the death of Sid Blaxland. Sid has been a lifelong supporter of Scouting in Letchworth at the 1st Letchworth Scouts and as District Chairman. In his retirement he continued as a member of the Scout Fellowship and was always present at our AGM. We give our thanks and gratitude to Sid and send our deepest sympathy to his wife at this sad moment of time.
