SATURDAY 27th JANUARY

Oak Eagle and Senuna ESU

On Saturday 27th January the Herts County team ran another great Monopoly Challenge in London.

There were teams from 1st Ashwell, Senuna Explorers and Oak Eagle Explorers, plus Leaders who were acting as marshalls. The competition is all run on a website which is fun and teams are followed around the course on an app.

Teams gain money by solving clues, visiting landmarks and taking photos. There are other challenges along the way too. It really is a great day out and everyone learns how to use public transport and navigate around the city.

Very well done to all those who took part. It was lovely to meet with so many happy smiling teams and Glenn and I are very sorry if your Chance card was a fine.

See you next year, on 25th January 2025

District Scout Cooking Competition

Three teams of Scout from the District took part in this year's Scout Cooking Competition On Sunday 28th January 2024. Teams of up to 4 Scouts prepared a three-course meal. The theme for this year was "Paris". Their food was based around food that is eaten in or inspired by Paris, France.

The winning team will have the opportunity to represent our District at the County Cooking Competition being held at Tolmers on the 11th February.. Thank you to the judges Irene Coldrey, (ASU) Jeremy Croxford (ASU) and for Nick Howell (ADC Scouts) for supporting the event, The judges were very impressed with some of the dishes awarding them 'Dish Of The Day' ..
